PREFACE

Published annually since 1985, the Loyola University Fact Book compiles a variety of data on some of the campus' most important institutional characteristics. These data are organized into six sections: Student Enrollments, Graduation Rates and Retention, Admissions, Academic Programs, Human Resources, Finance and Development.

This publication is being made available to the campus in electronic form only. The document can be accessed by faculty, staff, and students as a PDF on the Institutional Research section of the University's website at <http://www.loyola.edu/IR>.

The Office of Institutional Research is grateful for the efforts of many individuals and departments who have supplied information contained in this volume.

Suggestions, as well as general comments and questions regarding the Fact Book, are always welcome.

The History of Loyola University Maryland

The History of Loyola University Maryland

Loyola University Maryland was established by priests and brothers of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) in 1852. It was the first Jesuit College in the U.S. to bear the name of St. Ignatius Loyola and the second oldest chartered college in Baltimore. Loyola's first "campus" was a modest house in downtown Baltimore. Loyola moved to its present Evergreen location in northern Baltimore in 1922. Loyola became coeducational following a merger with Mount St. Agnes College in 1971 and was approved for a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa in 1994. Loyola College in Maryland adopted the Loyola University Maryland designation in 2009.

LIBRARY

Loyola Notre Dame Library, Open Monday through Sunday
The Loyola/Notre Dame Library, located midway between Loyola University and Notre Dame University of Maryland, opened in 1973. The library, a joint venture of the two institutions, is unique in being governed by a special corporation established by both but distinct from either institution. The striking, four-story building is situated at a point where both campuses meet, on the banks of a small stream which was dammed to form a reflecting pool. Students are encouraged to make extensive use of the library and its resources, which include approximately 646,500 books and bound periodical volumes encompassing extensive collections in the humanities and social sciences, particularly in the areas of Catholic studies, education, management, and psychology. The media services department offers a particularly strong collection of more than 18,585 DVD and other media titles representing the best in educational productions, film classics, and contemporary works, as well as hundreds of print periodical subscriptions. In 2008, the library was expanded and renovated to provide added computer facilities, several high-tech classrooms, a digital media center, a 96-seat auditorium, and a variety of seating areas for individual or group study. Notes: Semester totals represent duplicated headcounts, meaning if a student was on a year-long study abroad s/he is listed in both semesters. The total for the year, on the other hand, represents unduplicated headcounts so that students who studied abroad for two semesters are only counted once. The counts for AY 2013-2014 represent students scheduled to participate in study abroad programs, these counts should be treated as estimates as of November 6, 2013.

Notes: Bolded "ENR" figures represent the total number of individuals who began the program in that cohort that semester. Naturally, "ret/grad" percentages would not apply in this instance.

Notes: Bolded "ENR" figures represent the total number of individuals who began the program in that cohort that semester. Naturally, "ret/grad" percentages would not apply in this instance.

<sup>3</sup> Degrees for the Emerging Leaders M.B.A. are conferred the fall of each year. Students graduating from the Emerging Leader M.B.A '13 cohort will be included in the 2014 degree file and updated this summer.

Notes: These figures represent the number of instructional faculty on the institution's payroll on the census date. Full-time instructional faculty are those faculty employed on a full-time basis for instruction (including those with released time for research). Faculty on sabbatical or leave with pay are included; faculty on leave without pay and replacement faculty for faculty on sabbatical leave or leave with pay are not included. This is the definition of full-time instructional faculty used by the American Association of University Professors (AAUP) in its annual Faculty Compensation Survey. Part-time instructional faculty includes adjuncts and other instructors being paid solely for part-time classroom instruction. Part-time faculty also includes full-time faculty teaching less than two semester sessions. Employees who are not considered full-time instructional faculty but who teach one or more non-clinical credit courses may be counted as part-time faculty. There are 13 faculty employees not represented here (but are included in "All Faculty by Status, Gender, and Race", p. 40) because they do not fit this definition of instructional faculty.

Note: The classification system used to categorize occupations has changed for 2012-2013 due to federal reporting guidelines such that the Standard Occupational Classification System (SOC) is now being used instead of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission's Job Classification Guide. As such the broad categories used here to group occupations have changed from last year.
