III. EXECUTIVE BOARD ATTENDANCE AND MEMBERSHIP POLICIES

A. Meeting Schedule and Attendance
   1. OPTIONS executive board members will meet on a weekly basis unless decided by a majority vote that a meeting will be missed, or unless the college is closed during a regularly scheduled meeting. Additional meetings may be required as needed throughout the year.
   2. Executive board members should also stop by the office periodically throughout the week to check the status of sign-ups and other program activities.
   3. Executive board members should attend all executive board meetings. If an executive board member needs to miss a meeting he or she should notify the president and program coordinator 24 hours in advance of the meeting, or when able in the case of an emergency or special circumstance. The president will keep a record of all meetings missed.
   4. If an executive board member has two unexcused absences a formal verbal warning will be issued by the president or vice president. An unexcused absence is when an executive board member fails to provide notification that they will miss a meeting.
   5. If an executive board member has three unexcused absences he or she will be called to have a meeting with the president, vice president and the program coordinator. That member will be placed on probation for the remainder of the year and if any additional meetings are missed will be asked to resign.
B. Trips
   1. All executive board members should attend all trips.
   2. If an executive board member has to miss a trip, he or she must let the other members know at least one week in advance of their absence, or when able in the case of an emergency or special circumstance.
   3. If an executive board member fails to attend two trips per semester, a formal verbal warning will be issued by the president or vice president.
   4. If an executive board member fails to attend three trips, he or she will be called to have a meeting with the president, vice president, and the program coordinator. That member will be placed on probation for the remainder of the year and if any additional meetings are missed will be asked to resign.

C. Program Reflections
   1. Each member of the executive board should write a short program evaluation after each program to be kept for future reference.
   2. The president and vice president should periodically ask for feedback from OPTIONS members, both written and verbal.
   3. All evaluation results should be recorded and are kept in a binder in the OPTIONS office.
   4. At the end of the year a survey shall be given to OPTIONS members regarding all trips and operations over the years.

D. Voting
   1. Each member of the executive board must be present during the voting process. If a member is not in attendance at a meeting where a vote is to be held, they may give proxy to another member for that vote.
   2. Any member of the executive board may choose not to vote. Conflicts of interest related to a decision before the executive board should be taken into consideration.
   3. Only OPTIONS executive board members are permitted to vote.
   4. Each executive board member will have one vote and all votes are weighed equally.
   5. A two-thirds majority will decide the outcome of each vote.
   6. The program coordinator is permitted to vote only in the event of a tie.

IV. EXECUTIVE BOARD APPOINTMENT PROCESS

A. General Requirements for Appointment to the Executive Board
   1. Any member of OPTIONS can apply for executive board position. (See general membership for qualifications.)
   2. All executive board positions are year-long commitments according to the scheduling of the academic year. It is expected that some time will be necessary for planning at the end of the academic year in which the executive board member is appointed and also during the summer prior to the year in which the board member will serve.

B. Appointment Process for Executive Board Members
   1. Any member wanting to hold an executive board position must apply in April of the semester prior to the year they wish to serve with the exception of the secretary.
   2. Applications for the secretary position will be made available in September.
   3. Current executive board members must re-apply, and go through the same process as all other applicants.
4. All applicants must be interviewed by at least one member of the current executive board and the program coordinator. When possible, the standing member of the executive board in a specific position will be the one of the interviewers of potential candidates for that position. However, if the standing executive board member is submitting an application for re-appointment, they may not interview the other candidates for that specific position, and another member of the executive board must be present for the interview of the standing member.

5. The current executive board will hold a special meeting for the review, discussion and determination of applications for the new executive board.
   a. The entire executive board will be present, including the program coordinator.
   b. All members of the executive board will vote and have equal say.
   c. If a current member of the executive board is reapplying, they will not be allowed to vote for the position they are a candidate for, and may not be present during the voting process for that position.
   d. The applicant with the majority of the votes will be appointed to their selected positions.
   e. In case of a tie, the program coordinator will be the deciding vote.

C. Resignation
   1. In the event that an executive board member is up for removal from the board, they have the option to resign, prior to being removed from office.
   2. The resignation must be formally presented to the executive board and the program coordinator through a written letter of resignation to the executive board that must include their reason for resignation.
   3. If an executive board member chooses to resign, then subsequently applies for a position for the following year, that resignation will be considered in the decision making process.

D. Vacancies
   1. In the case that there is a vacancy prior to or at the beginning of the Fall Semester:
      a. Vacant Presidency
         i. The vice president will become the president.
      b. Vacant Vice Presidency, Activities Director, or Marketing Director
         i. The appointment process will be reinstated.
         ii. A chosen candidate will then take on the position of the vacancy.
   2. In the case that there is a vacancy prior to or at the beginning of the Spring Semester:
      a. Vacant Presidency
         i. The vice president will become the president.
      b. Vacant Vice Presidency, Activities Director, Marketing Director or Secretary
         i. The responsibilities of the vacant position will be allocated, temporarily, to the remaining members of the board.
         ii. Within the first month of the start of the semester, the executive board will look to existing committee and general members to find a temporary replacement for the remainder of the academic year. The executive board will approach candidates to determine their interest and decide who will fill the position based on the voting guidelines outlined earlier.
         iii. The current members of the executive board will vote to decide whether to seek a replacement for the vacant position.
V. ADDITIONAL GENERAL CLUB POLICIES

A. Co-Sponsorship
   1. All co-sponsorships must be with Loyola recognized organizations.
   2. Any organization wishing to co-sponsor with OPTIONS must submit a proposal.
   3. Proposals must be submitted three weeks prior to the event.
   4. Proposals must include a description of the trip, reason for the co-sponsorship, and a detailed budget.
   5. The executive board will vote in order to decide whether OPTIONS will co-sponsor the event.
   6. OPTIONS reserves the right to reach out to Loyola-recognized student organizations to see if they would be willing to co-sponsor trips or activities that offer programs related to their organizational missions, in accordance with the respective organization’s policies on co-sponsorship.

B. Sales/Ticket Process
   1. All Loyola students are able to purchase one ticket for an OPTIONS trip.
   2. Those students wishing to purchase tickets must do so in the Office of Student Activities or other designated place, such as tables in the Boulder Atrium or on the quad. In the absence of an alternative place for ticket sales, ticket sales will be conducted in the Office of Student Activities during normal business hours.
   3. Each Loyola student is permitted to purchase one additional ticket for a non-Loyola student, if a trip is not sold out two days prior to the trip date.
   4. The OPTIONS executive board has the right to provide temporary priority to OPTIONS members for out of town trips.
   5. Refunds will not be provided for any other reason than the cancellation of a trip. Exceptions may be made based on the discretion of the board.

VI. ADDITIONS, MODIFICATIONS, AND DELETIONS

A. Any additions, modifications, and/or deletions to this constitution must be submitted in writing to the entire executive board for review.
B. Any additions, modifications, and/or deletions should be developed in accordance with the guiding philosophy of the mission and vision of OPTIONS.
C. Approval or rejection of any additions, modifications, and/or deletions must be discussed by the entire executive board and subsequently voted upon in accordance with the voting guidelines and processes outlined in Section III., E.
D. Final approval or rejection of any addition, modification, and/or deletion must be submitted to the program coordinator and the director of the Office of Student Activities for final review and approval or rejection.
