Charting the Course: Discover your leadership potential

Vanguard is one of the world’s largest financial services companies with a strong commitment to integrity, focus and stewardship. Vanguard seeks distinguished individuals committed to stretching themselves and making a difference. Come explore a unique opportunity with an industry leader and discover your leadership potential.

Spend a day with Vanguard
Thursday, February 18, 2016
10am-4pm

Experience Vanguard with this full-day event that gives you the opportunity to:
- Hear from Vanguard’s executive and senior leaders including Janear Sewell, Principal of Human Resources in our London office, as well as a special guest!
- Gain exposure to Vanguard’s business and the corporate environment
- Connect with professionals and sharpen your networking skills
- Learn about our fulltime and internship opportunities
- Participate in innovative learning exercises that will set you up for career success

Connect, engage and learn with your peers and Vanguard leaders

General Session

Leadership: Discovering your leadership potential
- You will connect with Vanguard leaders through an approach that will change the way you think about leadership

Elective Sessions

  Conceptual Thinking: Fundamentals of Conceptual Thinking
  - You will be able to define conceptual thinking and the key enablers for solving complex problems in business

  Channeling Change: The Power of Mindset
  - You will be introduced to the concept of “mindset” and how it inspires change, growth and development in personal leadership

Scholarship

In addition to this one-of-a-kind experience, every student who applies will also have the chance to win a Vanguard scholarship. Your overall application will be used to determine eligibility. Three finalists will be announced prior to the event and the scholarship recipient will be announced at the event on February 18th.

Sign Up!
If you have a 3.0 GPA or higher and are interested in developing your leadership potential and exploring a career with Vanguard, please click here to sign up and receive the application.

Please note that Vanguard is not providing reimbursement for travel expenses.

“Every one person can make a difference”
-Jack Bogle, Vanguard Founder