CONFLICT-RELATED VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN
Identifying Connections and Distinctions

Thursday, September 22
4th Floor Programming Room
4:30PM Reception | 5 PM Presentation

Dr. Aisling Swaine is Director of the Center on Gender Equality and Associate Professor of Practice of International Affairs at George Washington University.

Dr. Swaine spent over seven years managing humanitarian and development programs in conflict-affected and fragile states in Africa and South East Asia for international NGOs and the United Nations. She has also worked since 2007 as an independent consultant and technical adviser to the United Nations, including UN Women, international donors and NGOs and continues to consult globally and engage in practice. She is a Gender Equality and Women’s Empowerment Fellow at the Human Rights Education Associates and is appointed as a Senior Gender Adviser on the United Nations Inter-Agency Standing Committee on Humanitarian Action Gender Capacity Roster.

The Bunting Peace & Justice Studies Speaker Series