

Living and Working in the French Caribbean Today:

A Service-Learning Program in Guadeloupe

FR 205D or FR 305 D ( 3 Loyola credits )

Three Weeks: July 8- July 31, 2011

Qualifies for the Experiential Learning requirement.

- Journey to Capesterre, a quiet village in the Caribbean, where French life has changed little over the last century.
- Join a unique immersion into the culture, history and ecology of the French Département of Guadeloupe.
- Learn and practice French as you reach out and help others in a service project and share life with your host family.
- Experience the stunning natural scenery of the Caribbean. Explore white sand beaches, or hike through a rain forest up an active volcano, and discover sugar cane fields and windmills.
- Fee: $3,545 ( 12 students maximum) - (airfare included)
- Application deadline: January 28 , 2011 & $950 deposit
- For more information and for an application, please contact Mme. C. Savell at csavell@loyola.edu. Fundraising activities can be planned.

