

Internships for Humanities Majors

National Endowment for the Humanities

- Description: The mission of the Division of Public Programs is to foster public understanding and appreciation of the humanities. National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) supports high quality projects blending sound humanities scholarship with engaging presentation formats designed to provide rich learning experiences for large and diverse public audiences. Interns engage in various tasks within the Division, generally gathering data to help in the assessment of the reach and effectiveness of the projects we fund.
  - Fields/major: Humanities discipline, library science, film, museum studies or media studies
  - Requirements: must be in majors above
  - Deadlines: Please allow at least four to six weeks prior to the date you wish to intern to allow proper consideration of your application.
  - Compensation: Unpaid
  - Application: Please submit a resume and cover letter indicating where in the NEH you wish consideration for an internship and the time period for which you are available (including the number of hours/days of the week if you will not be available for a full-time work schedule). A writing sample and copy of your transcript, if applying for a student internship, is requested but not required. Also, for student applicants from colleges or universities that grant academic credit for internships, please indicate if you are seeking an internship for academic credit.
  - Contact: Karen Mittelman, Acting Deputy Director
Office of Public Programs, Room 426
National Endowment for the Humanities
1100 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20506
202-606-8269 or publicpgms@neh.gov
- Human Resources Internship
- Description: Attention! Number one comic book publisher in North America seeking business-related or liberal arts majors. Be prepared to work with all types of individuals, file extensive amounts of paperwork, and bring requisite computer skills. Our HR internship will work closely in building the internship program and will learn how to recruit new potential applicants. The HR candidate should be detail oriented and organized.
  - Fields/major: Humanities major: Human Services, human resources, English Etc..
  - Deadlines: Rolling
  - Compensation: Non-paid
  - Application: Apply here

- Center for the Study of the President Internship
  - Description: The Center for the Study of the Presidency Internship is available to students with an interest in the American Presidency. You will assist in the research and writing of policy analyses and other projects and help organize meetings, conferences and outreach programs.
  - Amount Awarded: Not specified
  - Fields: Political science, history, international relations, economics, business, or journalism.
  - Deadline:
  - Application:
    - ✓ To apply, please email the following to Sara.Spancake@thePresidency.org
    - ✓ A cover letter indicating your availability (number of days of a week available to work, and approximate start and end dates);
    - ✓ Your resume
    - ✓ A brief (no more than 3 pages) writing sample on a relevant topic of your choice.
    - ✓