Graduate School Comparison Sheet

	School #1	School #1	School #3	School #4	School #5
Course offerings are frequent and interesting
The program I want is offered
Job placements after graduation is strong
The quality of faculty is reputable
There are campus resources for graduate students
The location is convenient
The cost is reasonable
Financial aid, scholarships and fellowships are offered
The campus is the size I like
The student/teacher ratio is good
I meet the admissions criteria
It is a reputable school
The department is reputable
Research experience is available
Academic advising is available
The duration of the program is reasonable
There is diversity among the student body and faculty
Training/experiential facilities are available
Teaching and graduate assistantships are available					