

Finding Your ID Number and Your Library Number

This is your library barcode number, which is used to login to library services, such as retrieving database articles from off-campus.

Note that the numbers used on this handout are not the real numbers on my ID, so you cannot use them to access my accounts on the computer or at the library.