

Student Leadership Corps

Application Form

NAME _____

PHONE _____ E-MAIL _____

GPA _____ INTENDED MAJOR _____

Please list the name and email address of two references (past and current employers, faculty, administrators, staff, RAs, club and organization leaders, etc.) who can speak to your leadership potential. They will not need to write a letter of recommendation.

REFERENCE #1: _____

REFERENCE #2: _____

SLC Vision Statement: Student Leadership Corps (SLC) is a small group of sophomore students who come together to further improve their individual and collective leadership skills through examination, open communication, and trust. SLC members will develop a deeper knowledge of themselves as persons and as value-driven leaders while at the same time examining theoretical concepts of leadership. Through group meetings, individual meetings, and reflection, SLC members will be better prepared to assume leadership roles at Loyola and beyond.

Qualifications

- Students MUST be nominated in order to apply for the program
- Minimum GPA of 2.5 (though this can be flexible)
- Full-time undergraduate status at Loyola University Maryland, from September 2011 to April 2012
- Must be available for Friday afternoon meetings during the fall semester (3:00 – 4:30 pm).
- Strong interest in developing your own and others leadership potential and abilities
- Sense of responsibility
- Effective organizational skills, including the ability to meet assigned deadlines
- Ability to work with others as a team in the completion of tasks
- Commitment to perform as a leader in your personal best interest and in the interest of Loyola College
- Sense of humor and creativity
- Note: This program is not designed for students who will participate in intensive fall training programs through various offices on campus (RAs, Evergreens, etc.). If you have questions regarding your eligibility, please email Sara Scalzo (sscalzo@loyola.edu).

**Completed applications are due to the Office of Leadership & New Student Programs, 4th Floor Student Center, by Monday, April 4, 2011** Please sign up for an interview time when returning your application.

4. Please list any extra-curricular commitments you have for next year.

5. Have you participated in the 'StrengthsQuest' Program? If so, what are your "Top 5"?

QUESTIONS?

Sara Scalzo, Associate Director of Leadership & New Student Programs

Phone: x5570

Email: sscalzo@loyola.edu