Understanding the Impact of Addiction and Supporting Recovery: Strategies and Tools for Clergy and Other Congregational Leaders

Tuesday, November 14, 2006

9:30 AM to 2:30 PM

Loyola College

8890 McGaw Road

Columbia, MD 21045

A unique opportunity for clergy and congregational leaders to receive the latest information, resources and strategies on how to educate and provide hope to individuals and families suffering from the impact of addiction to alcohol and substance abuse.

Hosted by:

Loyola College in Maryland's Pastoral Counseling Department in collaboration with the National Association for Children of Alcoholics (NACoA) and the American Association of Pastoral Counselors (AAPC) with support from the federal Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration's Center for Substance Abuse Treatment

Objectives:

1. Raise awareness of how addiction to alcohol and other drugs affects individuals and their families;
2. Discuss role of clergy and congregations in offering information, hope and recovery support for those affected by alcohol and drug abuse;
3. Review core competencies for clergy and congregational leaders in understanding and addressing alcohol and drug abuse.

Facilitated by:

Sis Wenger
President/CEO
NACoA

Steve Hornberger
Faith Initiative Program Consultant
