Outdoor Adventure Experience:

Whitewater Kayaking

1. I understand that participation in the Outdoor Adventure Experience (“OAE”) is completely voluntary.
2. I understand that I am free not to participate in any aspect of the event or experience if, in my judgment, it is beyond my ability or if it entails risks that I do not wish to accept.
3. I understand that on an OAE Kayaking Trip there are risks of bodily injury or death due to conditions such as steep terrain, slippery rocks, cold temperatures, insects, poisonous plants, use of camp stoves, animals, extreme or inclement weather, strong rapids and currents, and the actions of other participants.
4. Kayaking requires physical exertion; they may include, but are not limited to, climbing, hiking, camping, carrying heavy loads, swimming, aerobic exercise, exposure to changing climates, exposure to cold water, and maneuvering through and around strong rapids and rocks.
5. By choosing to be a participant on an OAE Kayaking Trip, I acknowledge that Loyola College cannot guarantee my safety, as there are inherent risks involved in adventure programming.
