CANDIDATE PROFILE

- ◇ Application to the Leadership Essentials program is open to persons living or working in Howard County. This program is targeted for young professionals interested in expanding their leadership skills. Approximately 25 individuals will be selected to participate.
- ◇ Leadership Essentials seeks representation from a cross-section of the community---business, labor, education, the arts, religion, government, community-based organizations, ethnic and minority groups.
- ◇ Applicants must have the support (financial and time commitment) of the organization or corporation they represent. Part IV requires the signature of the applicant's immediate supervisor.
- ◇ The Leadership Essentials Selection Committee will review all applications and select the participants. The Committee evaluates each applicant based upon the merits of the written application and a personal interview.
- ◇ Based on the application and interview, the Selection Committee will consider the whole person, their level of accomplishment and desire to extend beyond his/her current level of proficiency. The committee will consider the diverse skill set and experience this person would contribute to the class, ongoing education and/or consistent demonstration of self-improvement/learning. Specifically, the following will be considered:
 1. Commitment to developing their capacity for effective leadership
 2. Current proficiency in specific leadership skills. This may include: conflict management, organizational skills, inspiring others, relationship building, leading teams to meet objectives, etc.
 3. Communication skills, both oral and written.
 4. Evidence of initiative in take on leadership roles, either in their organization or in a volunteer capacity.
 5. Sincere desire to participate in community service

PARTICIPANT COMMITMENT

- ◇ Leadership Essentials begins in December and ends in June. Sessions will normally be held on Thursdays. Some of the class days are half days, while others are full day sessions. Attendance at each class is expected.
- ◇ The final class schedule will be sent with the participant's acceptance materials. The program kicks off with an Orientation/Reception, Thursday, December 13, 2012. The Opening Dinner and All Day Retreat will be held on Wednesday evening January 24 and Thursday, January 25, 2013 (Both of these are held locally and no overnight is required). Attendance is required at both of these events.
- ◇ To graduate from Leadership Essentials, participants are expected to attend all class sessions, contribute to a team community service project outside of class time and participate in a coaching relationship. Participants may miss no more than 6 hours of class time in order to graduate from the program.
- ◇ If an applicant is accepted into the program and either (i) does not accept or (ii) accepts and is then forced to drop-out of the program, there is no guarantee that the applicant will be accepted into the program in subsequent years. Once the program has begun, no refunds will be issued.
- ◇ Tuition for each participant is $2800. Once a candidate is selected, payment is due by December 3, 2012. Limited Financial Aid is available - an application for aid can also be found on our website. Requests for financial assistance must be submitted with the application.

Leadership Essentials PART IV– Support and Time Commitment

A $25 non-refundable application fee (payable to Loyola University Maryland) is required with each application. If you are accepted and enrolled, you and/or your organization will be obligated for the full tuition fee of $2,800 which covers all program costs. Payment can be made in installments, if needed. If financial assistance is needed, complete the Financial Assistance Application and submit it with your application.

Participants are responsible for the time commitment of Leadership Essentials. Participants attend monthly program sessions, complete a team based community service project and meet with his/her assigned coach. The class schedule will be sent with the acceptance materials. Two events are mandatory: Orientation on December 13 and the Dinner on January 23 & the Retreat on January 24. Subsequent sessions will be held monthly February through June. Most are half days and will be held in the morning or afternoon. A full-day closing retreat is scheduled for early June. Leadership Essentials' graduates will be invited as guests to Leadership Howard County's Annual Alumni Dinner held in mid-June. If a participant misses more than 6 hours from the monthly sessions, he/she will not be permitted to graduate. Failure to comply with this attendance policy may result in forfeiture of all tuition fees paid. If you are unable to make the necessary time commitment, it is not in your best interest to apply at this time.
