MATERIAL MAKING WORKSHOP

WITH

NAOKO OGAWA

SATURDAY, MARCH 17TH

TEL: 410 617-7777

MATERIAL MAKING WORKSHOP:

Material making is an on-going task of the Montessori teacher. In this workshop we will look at some of the materials that need regular inspiration and renewal. Fabric pouches will be demonstrated and participants will have the chance to finish them with embroidery and other sewing skills. There will be art prints for decorating the classroom, as well as the start of an art folder collection. Come be re-inspired about the need for beauty in the environment!

WORKSHOP LEADER

Naoko Ogawa is an AMI Primary trainer. She has worked on Montessori training courses in Japan, China and WMI/Loyola, and currently co-directs the summer course at the Montessori Institute of Milwaukee. She is an experienced material maker and workshop presenter.

Tuition: $100 (includes materials fee)

How to register: send registration form (one per school, please) with fees (check payable to Loyola University Maryland) to:
