

Preparing the Workforce of the Future for Tomorrow

Overview

The Maryland Transit Administration (MTA) is a division of the Maryland Department of Transportation, and one of the largest multi-modal transit systems in the United States. MTA operates Local & Commuter Buses, Light Rail, Metro Subway, MARC Train Service, and a comprehensive Para-transit (Mobility) system. MTA employees over 3,300 professionals whose goals is to provide the citizens and visitors to Maryland with the highest quality public transit services. Responsible for providing over 350,000 trips per day, our employees range from a variety of disciplines such as mechanics, accountants, planners, engineers, lawyers and everything in between. Each employee in every department plays a pivotal role in the success of the day to day operations at the MTA.

Benefits to the Agency

- Enables MTA to grow its future workforce. Internships are a proven, cost-effective way to recruit and evaluate potential employees.
- Allows the agency to contribute to the professional development of future professionals through partnering with educational institutions.

Benefits to Students

- Get an opportunity to establish a network of professionals in your chosen career field
- Receive internship credit (Contingent upon school)
- Obtain valuable work experience in a fast paced job market

Internships Offered

MTA Partners with universities, high schools, workforce organizations, and technical colleges to allow students the opportunity to gain practical experience in a fast paced working environment. This Program is a premier hybrid experience of mentoring and interning that grants students the opportunity to display their greatest skills and assets. The internships offered include:

- College Internship Programs
- High School Service Learning Internships
- Workforce Development/Volunteer Internships

Requirements

Candidates must be willing to commit 12-20 hours per work for a minimum of 3 months. Internships are unpaid; although school credit is available at some institutions. (Check with your academic advisor for more details)

How to Apply

Contact the MTA's Office of Community Workforce Programs

E-mail: internship@mta.maryland.gov

Phone: 410-767-3356

Check us out using your Smartphone!!

