

“Get Lucky with March GSO Events!”

With Midterms and Spring Break, March can be a wild month (but don't let it leave you feeling too green)! Take a few minutes to see what is going on with the GSO this March.

Make an impact on your graduate student community!:

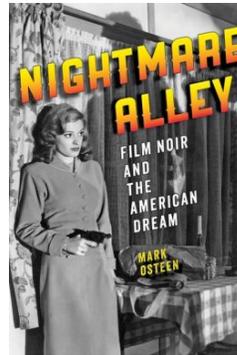

The GSO is excited to announce the opening of the application process for the 2014-2015 Team GSO Executive Board. Positions of President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary, Loyola Conference Representative, Academic Senate Representative are all open as most of our current members are graduating. Descriptions can be found at www.loyola.edu/gso. Questions? Email gso@loyola.edu

March Events:

Nightmare Alley: Film Noir and the American Dream

Wednesday, March 19th, 7pm-9pm
Knott Hall B03, Evergreen Campus

Ever wonder what is film noir? Ever think how do movie genres reflect society? Are you a film noir fanatic? Join the Office of Student Engagement, Phi Beta Kappa, and Loyola Professor Dr. Mark Osteen for an engaging multimedia presentation. More information available on the GSO Facebook page.

Holi Festival Celebration with Asian Cultural Alliance

Friday, March 21st, 4pm-6pm
Flannery O'Connor Hall Lawn
(in front of Library), Evergreen Campus

Celebrate the arrival of spring with the Graduate Student Organization and Asian Cultural Alliance. Holi is a traditional springtime Hindu festival of color and love (and possibly the inspiration for The Color Run craze). Park at the Loyola Notre Dame Library, and take the short walk to Flannery O'Connor Lawn to learn about this festival, sample some Indian cuisine, and witness the chalk throw!

Heavy Seas Brewery Tour

Saturday, March 22nd, 11am (sharp) - 2pm

Tour the Heavy Seas Brewery and learn how this Baltimore Beer is made! (See next page)

Heavy Seas Brewery Tour (continued from p. 1)

Heavy Seas Brewery, Baltimore

Free or $5.00*

Register at www.loyola.edu/gradfriday

*The tour is free and open to all ages, limited to the first 15 people who sign up. A souvenir glass that includes five beer samples costs just $5 (you must be at least 21 years of age to drink). The tour will start on-time, but you are welcome to arrive 15 minutes early to start sampling. For safety reasons, please do not wear open-toed shoes or flip-flops. Registration is required.

Loyola University Maryland Relay for Life

Saturday, March 29th

7pm, Reitz Arena, Evergreen Campus

Come walk with or support your Graduate Student Organization as we raise money to help the American Cancer Society. You can donate money, join our team, or simply cheer us on. Search "GSO" in the team box on the Relay for Life website.

Graduate Assistantships

Now is a great time for exploring open graduate assistantships. Assistantships typically include both partial tuition remission as well as a stipend, and are available in a variety of areas to students in all majors. Visit www.loyola.edu/graduateassistantships for the latest listings and availability.

About the GSO

All graduate students at Loyola are automatically members of the Graduate Student Organization, a student-run group focused on representing and addressing the needs of the graduate student body.

This year's GSO goals include:

- Promoting campus and community resources
 - Increasing publicity of graduate student events and services
 - Providing strategic, concise and streamlined information, and
 - Incorporating inclusive events into the GSO programming.
