Outdoor Adventure Experience

Pre-Orientation 2012

1. I understand that participation in Outdoor Adventure Experience programming is completely voluntary.
2. I understand that I am free not to participate in any aspect of the event or experience if, in my judgment, it is beyond my ability or if it entails risks that I do not wish to accept.
3. I understand that during Pre-Orientation 2012 there are risks of bodily injury or death due to conditions such as but not limited to; highway traffic, van travel, steep terrain, sandy terrain, slippery rocks, high exposure, falling rocks, anchor failure, equipment malfunction, small confined spaces, total darkness, cold cave temperatures, strong rapids, currents, river hazards, drowning, insects, poisonous plants, tides, capsized boat, boat traffic, use of camp stoves, animals, extreme or inclement weather, and the actions of other participants.
4. Most activities require physical exertion; they may include, but are not limited to, backpacking, camping, climbing, scrambling, paddling, rappelling, hiking, running, carrying heavy loads, swimming, aerobic exercise, and exposure to changing climates.
5. By choosing to be a participant in Pre-Orientation 2012, I acknowledge that Loyola University Maryland cannot guarantee my safety, as there are inherent risks involved in outdoor adventure programming.
6. I understand that Loyola's insurance will not cover personal vehicles or passengers driving in personal vehicles. The individual driver is responsible for themselves and any passengers in their vehicle. All drivers must carry their own insurance to cover liability. Any use of a personal vehicle on an OAE trip must be approved by the supervising administrators in the Department of Recreational Sports overseeing Outdoor Adventure programs.
