BUT ONE THING IS CERTAIN: YOU WILL BE READY.

READY FOR EVERYTHING

In a diverse, uncertain, and rapidly-changing world, we believe a Jesuit education acquired at Loyola University Maryland best prepares you for academic achievement, the new world of work, and a balanced, flourishing, and purposeful life.

MENTORSHIP AND GUIDANCE

At Loyola you will be individually taught and taught as an individual. Deep, meaningful, and sustained faculty mentorship and guidance will be the anchor of your Loyola education.

A JESUIT LIBERAL ARTS EDUCATION

Depth of knowledge and breadth of experience. Intellectual rigor and the ability to understand and consider diverse points of view. The future demands both. So do the Jesuits. So does Loyola.

CAREER PREPARATION

From the day you arrive on campus to the day you graduate, you’ll be asking and answering fundamental questions about who you are and what you love. Here you’ll discover and build a path that connects you to your values and passions—and that will lead to your dreams.

THE GREYHOUND NATION

This is what, ultimately, makes your experience at Loyola possible: meaningful relationships and an incredible community that will embolden you to achieve your goals and become your best self.

WHAT’S NEXT?

THAT’S FOR YOU TO DECIDE

BUT ONE THING IS CERTAIN: YOU WILL BE READY.

READY FOR EVERYTHING
At Loyola University Maryland you do not have to choose between focused, effective career preparation and the profound, life-long benefits of a liberal arts education. In fact, it’s a false choice. Because the skills that will give you security in the new world of work are the very capabilities that define us as human beings.

There’s a simple reason a comprehensive liberal arts experience has been the Jesuit educational standard for hundreds of years: It works. No other academic foundation better prepares you to meet the various and complex challenges you will face in your life—today, tomorrow, and 20 years from now.

A JESUIT LIBERAL ARTS EDUCATION
TIME-TESTED. PROVEN. IN DEMAND NOW MORE THAN EVER.

In fact, it’s a false choice. Because the skills that will give you security in the new world of work are the very capabilities that define us as human beings.

NO. 12
AMONG ONLY 23 SCHOOLS RECOGNIZED NATIONWIDE FOR FOCUS ON AND COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE IN UNDERGRADUATE TEACHING

NOTHING SETS LOYOLA APART MORE THAN THE ROLE MENTORSHIP & GUIDANCE PLAY IN YOUR EXPERIENCE.

In fact, few things will transform your life as much as your relationships with your professors. They are your guides, coaches, mentors, personal advisors, and champions. Your confidants when you need a listening ear. Your compass when you lose your way. They know what you’re capable of—sometimes even better than you do—and are personally invested in your success. Their insights, guidance, encouragement, and faith in your potential will stay with you for the rest of your life.

The literature professor who recognizes your talent and encourages you to become a writer. The chemistry professor who sees your potential and invites you to conduct research with her. The writing professor whose past life as a war reporter inspires your interest in journalism. The political science professor who connects you to a life-changing internship at the Baltimore Sun. Our faculty will help you find your passion, gain the confidence to pursue it, and build the skills and experience to thrive in your field.

You are not like anyone else. Your academic experience shouldn’t be like anyone else’s.

AT LOYOLA, NO ONE HAS THE SAME EXPERIENCE, BECAUSE HERE YOU ARE KNOWN PERSONALLY AND TAUGHT AS AN INDIVIDUAL.

THE HONORS PROGRAM
Loyola’s highest-achieving students can enroll in the university’s Honors Program. Honors students come from all academic disciplines, and the program is well-suited for students in all majors in all three schools: Loyola College, the university’s school of arts and sciences; the School of Education; and the Sellinger School of Business and Management. Taught by Loyola’s most distinguished faculty, Honors classes are small and are combined with an extensive program of excursions and events, discussions and lectures, and extracurricular enrichment.

SELLINGER SCHOLARS
A three-year honors program in business administration, the Sellinger Scholars Program is designed to prepare high-achieving, highly-motivated students for roles of leadership and service. Sellinger Scholars take honors-level business core coursework as a cohort and participate each term in a Sellinger Scholars Experience, which supports the curriculum, fosters professional development, and teaches and enhances leadership skills. Eligible students are invited to apply to Sellinger Scholars in the spring of their first year.

FELLOWSHIPS AND RESEARCH
Each year, students receive national and international fellowships and grants to further their scholarship through research and independent study in all academic disciplines. Loyola faculty consistently receive grants and funding from highly competitive national sources, allowing you to work side-by-side with experts in your field of interest throughout the academic year or during the summer. When it comes to challenging yourself intellectually, pursuing more in an academic field, or researching a topic you are passionate about, there are no limits at Loyola.

BEGIN IN BALTIMORE

CHARM CITY. THE CITY THAT READS. CRAB CAKE CAPITAL OF THE WORLD.

Baltimore has countless nicknames because it has endless character. There’s simply no place like it. A major metropolis with a small-town vibe, Baltimore is walkable, bikeable, and easy to navigate. It’s a city of firsts and home to a number of the country’s most important historical sites. Baltimore boasts some of the world’s best culture, festivals, and entertainment—with none of the pretension you often find in other cities. It’s a place where you can be utterly yourself... or reinvent yourself completely.

Leadership in your field

Whatever your career or calling, real achievement will require both depth of experience and breadth of knowledge—which is how we teach everything we teach.

Enduring success

The highest salaries within a field reward the very skills we cultivate, such as writing, reasoning, ethics, interpersonal skills, and creativity.

Preparation for a lifetime

Life and work in the future will require sets of skills that aren’t neatly packaged. A Jesuit education from Loyola, grounded in the liberal arts, ensures you become well-rounded, sure-footed, and nimble.
WHY IS LOYOLA WORTH IT?

BECAUSE WE BELIEVE A JESUIT EDUCATION BEST PREPARES YOU TO LEARN, LEAD, AND SERVE IN OUR DIVERSE AND CHANGING WORLD.

AND WE BELIEVE A JESUIT EDUCATION IS BEST ACQUIRED AT LOYOLA UNIVERSITY MARYLAND.

WHY?

EXPERIENCE

Students at Loyola are individually taught—and taught as individuals. Deep, meaningful, and sustained faculty mentorship and guidance is the essence of a Loyola education.

ACCESSIBILITY

A Jesuit education is an active transformation. In order to benefit fully from it, it has to be directly taught, personally experienced, deeply understood, and put into living practice. Furthermore, students need consistent, individual guidance to connect academics to aspirations and passions to careers.

Loyola deploys its full resources to ensure that these transformative experiences are accessible to each student—wherever their minds and hearts lead, from the day they arrive to the moment they set foot in the world.

RELATIONSHIPS

Beyond academic rigor, the cornerstone of intellectual life at Loyola is relationships. Relationships that are founded in the guidance and encouragement of tenured professors, dedicated administrators, coaches, and advisors who are invested in every student’s success.

Relationships that push students to the limits of their intellect and imagination. Relationships that demonstrate how to absorb, engage with, and respond to new knowledge and experiences. Relationships that teach them how to face today’s hurdles—while preparing them to leap them on their own in the future. Ask any Loyola graduate what made the difference in their college experience, and they’ll likely share a name and a story of a meaningful relationship with a faculty member, administrator, or coach who became a mentor, a trusted confidant, a friend.

OUTCOMES

The outcomes bear out the promise of a Loyola University Maryland degree. Within six to nine months of graduation, 98.8% of our graduates are employed or in graduate or professional school, and the mid-career salaries of our alumni trend more than 30% higher than those of graduates of competitor institutions. More importantly, both alumni and employers have singled out the distinctive Jesuit aspects of Loyola graduates as primary engines of their enduring success, both professionally and personally.

STRONG TRUTHS WELL LIVED

is more than a motto. It is a tangible promise. A promise that you will be actively shaped and challenged by rigorous academics in close communion with faculty and peers. A promise that your values will be strengthened and profoundly deepened. A promise that you will take root in a community big enough to be challenging and broadening, and small enough to be close-knit and welcoming. A promise that you will leave transformed in mind, body, and spirit, poised to thrive and succeed.

NOW YOU KNOW WHO WE ARE. LET’S TALK ABOUT YOU.

ADMISSION PROCESS

Our admission process—like our academic philosophy and our graduates—is unique. We take a comprehensive approach and consider the whole person. One. Student. At. A. Time. Every applicant receives a thorough individual evaluation by the admission committee. Taking this holistic approach, we seek students who are best suited to take advantage of everything Loyola has to offer. We consider academic merit as well as all other aspects of your preparation to handle what will be asked of you once you enroll at Loyola University Maryland. That interest in the whole person is why we’ve adopted our test-optional admission policy.

FIRST-YEAR APPLICANTS

Loyola offers two non-binding admission programs for students applying directly from high school: Early Action and Regular Decision. All admitted students have until May 1 to confirm their intent to enroll by submitting a non-refundable enrollment deposit.

TEST-OPTIONAL ADMISSION POLICY

We are proud to have been among the first of more than 900 colleges and universities to offer test-optional admission policies. In fact, Loyola has been test-optional for more than a decade.

• SAT and/or ACT scores are not required for students applying for full-time undergraduate admission (except for home-schooled students).
• However, you may submit your scores if you feel they represent your academic achievements.
• Test scores are also not required for consideration for admission to the Honors Program or for merit-based scholarships.

Our goal is to ensure that the world-class Jesuit education offered at Loyola is accessible to all high-achieving, motivated students entering college today, regardless of how they may have performed on one standardized test.

Recognized among Money magazine’s 2018-19 Best Test-Optional Colleges

For detailed information on the first-year admission process, visit LOYOLA.EDU/APPLY-NOW or contact us at ADMISSION@LOYOLA.EDU.

TRANSFER APPLICANTS

Transfer applicants are welcome to apply for the Fall, Spring, or Summer terms. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.70 in previous college work is required. For more information on how to apply, visit loyola.edu/transferadmission.

INTERNATIONAL APPLICANTS

International applicants can apply for first-year or transfer admission and are considered for all academic merit scholarships. International applicants are required to submit additional materials with their admission application. For more information, visit loyola.edu/internationaladmission.

UNDOCUMENTED AND DACA APPLICANTS

Loyola welcomes and supports applications from students of all ethnicities and nationalities regardless of their immigration status. Applications from undocumented students and students with Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) status are invited and given the same consideration as any other Loyola applicant during the admission and merit-scholarship review process. For more information, visit loyola.edu/daca.

FINANCIAL AID AND SCHOLARSHIPS

YOU WANT TO INVEST IN YOUR FUTURE. WE’LL DO EVERYTHING WE CAN TO MAKE THAT POSSIBLE.

Loyola sponsors a comprehensive program of institutionally-funded academic scholarships, need-based grants, and athletic grants, in addition to our participation in the major federal and state student aid programs.

MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS

All applicants (first-year, transfer, and international) are eligible to receive merit-based scholarships, and every student who completes an application is reviewed for merit-based scholarships, need-based grants, and athletic grants, in addition to our participation in the major federal and state student aid programs.

NEED-BASED FINANCIAL AID

All applicants (first-year, transfer, and international) are eligible to receive merit-based scholarships, and every student who completes an application is reviewed for merit-based scholarships, need-based grants, and athletic grants, in addition to our participation in the major federal and state student aid programs.
