

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY MARYLAND

— 1852 —

Multicultural Overnight Program Agenda - Parents

(Locations TBD)

- 9:30 a.m. Registration
Andrew White Student Center, Third Floor, outside of Center for Cultural Engagement
- 10:00 a.m. Welcome
- 10:20 a.m. Introduction to the ALANA Office
Get familiar with our ALANA (African, Latino, Asian and Native American) Services committed to providing support, services, and programs that encourage the success of ALANA students at Loyola University Maryland. Find out how through intentional programming and a broad spectrum of services, we foster the academic, personal, spiritual, and leadership development.
- 11:00 a.m. Financial Aid Session
- 12:00 p.m. Lunch and Roundtable discussions with campus partners
- 1:15 p.m. Campus Tour
- 2:15 p.m. Current Student Panel for Parents
How did you know Loyola was the place for you? What is there to do in Baltimore? Get all your questions about Loyola answered by those who know it best—our current students! Writing Center, Academic Advising and Support Center and the Center for Community Service and Justice.
- 3:30 p.m. Resources at Loyola
The transition from high school to college can be tough. What resources does Loyola offer to help make this move as seamless as possible, even when it comes to learning the city of Baltimore? Learn about some of our most utilized offices, The Study, The Writing Center, Academic Advising and Support Center and the Center for Community Service and Justice.
- 4:25 p.m. Messina...what's that?
All the schools you are looking at offer some sort of freshman seminar—which helps you learn about the institution's resources, services, and assists you in your first semester. But what happens after the first semester? Hear about our first-year living and learning community that helps you beyond just the first few months.