

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY MARYLAND

— 1852 —

Multicultural Overnight Program Agenda - Students

(Locations TBD)

- 9:30 a.m. Registration
Andrew White Student Center, Third Floor, outside of Center for Cultural Engagement
- 10:00 a.m. Welcome
- 10:20 a.m. Introduction to the ALANA Office
Get familiar with our ALANA (African, Latino, Asian and Native American) Services committed to providing support, services, and programs that encourage the success of ALANA students at Loyola University Maryland. Find out how through intentional programming and a broad spectrum of services, we foster the academic, personal, spiritual, and leadership development.
- 10:50 p.m. Class Visit
- 12:00 p.m. Lunch and Roundtable discussions with campus partners
- 1:15 p.m. Current Student Panel
How did you know Loyola was the place for you? What is there to do in Baltimore? Get all your questions about Loyola answered by those who know it best—our current students!
- 2:15 p.m. Campus Tour
- 3:30 p.m. Resources at Loyola
- 4:25 p.m. Messina...what's that?
All the schools you are looking at offer some sort of freshman seminar—which helps you learn about the institution's resources, services, and assists you in your first semester. But what happens after the first semester? Hear about our first-year living and learning community that helps you beyond just the first few months.
- 5:00 p.m. Meet Loyola Student hosts and free-time

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY MARYLAND

— 1852 —

6:00 p.m.

Seoul to Soul

Soul to Seoul is a collaboration between Loyola's Black Student Association (BSA) and Asian Cultural Alliance (ACA) in which we bring in different foods that showcase Korean and Black culture.

9:00 p.m.

Fitness and Aquatics Center (FAC) Attack 2.0

Fitness and Aquatics Center (FAC)

Receive an inside look at our 6,000 square foot Fitness and Aquatic Center (FAC). You will get a chance to view the center, try out our climbing wall and partake in some friendly games and competition.

12:00 a.m.

Midnight Breakfast optional

Hungry? Join Greyhounds for late-night breakfast in Boulder Garden Café/ Boulder 2.0. Relax, hangout with friends, and have breakfast food at the end of the day, starting at 12am.