

ENOCH PRATT free LIBRARY

your journey starts here

Latino Americans: Sharing Our Histories Para Imaginar Nuestros Futuros

Do you like sharing stories and writing? Come share/ write the stories of your family (in both Spanish and English) through speaking and writing. If you'd like to share your stories orally, we'll record them using StoryCorps. Participants will end with a story (written or oral) documenting the story of their family and their future aspirations. Refreshments will be provided. Registration (free) for students in Grades 4-8 and their families is recommended; call 410-396-1580.

* attendance to both sessions is not required.

¿Le gusta compartir historias y escribir? Ven a compartir/ escribir la historia de su familia (en español y/o en Inglés) a través de hablar y escribir en un taller de escritura. Si desea compartir sus historias de forma oral, grabaremos usando el programa StoryCorps. Los participantes terminarán con un cuento (escrita o oral) que documenta la historia de su familia y sus futuras aspiraciones. Se servirá un pequeño refrigerio. Se recomienda el registro (gratuito) para estudiantes en grados 4-8 y sus familias; llame al 410-396-1580.

* La asistencia a los dos no es un requisito

A yearlong program series focused on the history and experiences of Latino Americans in the U.S. and Baltimore. Presented in partnership with Loyola University's Center for Innovation in Urban Education and the Esperanza Center, with funding from the National Endowment for the Humanities and the American Library Association.

Saturdays, February 6 & 27 *

10:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Southeast Anchor Library

3601 Eastern Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21224

The free educational and cultural programs at Pratt libraries are made possible by the generous support of donors to the Enoch Pratt Free Library.

prattlibrary.org