

Summer 2022 Services at the Counseling Center

The Counseling Center remains open for services during the summer break (May 16 - September 5, 2022). Hours are Monday-Thursday, 8:30AM-5:00PM and Fridays 8:30-12:00PM. If the University is closed for holidays or inclement weather, the Counseling Center will also be closed. The use of N-95 or KN-95 masks are required while in the Counseling Center.

Available services for all students:

- Consultation with students, parents, and campus partners
- Comprehensive referral support
- 24/7 Crisis Line: 410-617-5530

For students residing in Maryland and enrolled in Loyola summer courses:

- Let's Talk, solution-focused, goal-oriented, one-time space for students to meet with a counselor around a specific concern or problem
- Assessment and recommendations
- Short-term individual therapy

Please note that due to state licensing laws, students must be residing in Maryland and enrolled in Loyola summer courses to be eligible for Let's Talk, assessment, and therapy services during the summer. Students seeking treatment over the summer, but not enrolled in summer courses at Loyola and/or not residing in Maryland, are encouraged to contact the Counseling Center to discuss their counseling needs. All Loyola students are eligible for consultation and referral assistance. The Counseling Center remains committed to supporting the emotional well-being of our students.

Incoming first-year students, transfer students, and/or their families, are also encouraged to contact the Counseling Center to consult about treatment options for the upcoming academic year, if needed.

For questions, consultation, or to schedule an appointment, please call 410-617-2273. Online scheduling is not available during the summer months.
