

Do I have a voice?

- The Faculty Affairs Committee is a committee of the Academic Senate and members are elected. The committee makes recommendations on issues of faculty rights and welfare. It serves as a liaison and a communication body between the Loyola faculty and the Executive Governance Committee.
- Your voice in university governance
- Your advocate (non-tenure track faculty representative to FAC)
 - Sondra Guttman sfguttman@loyola.edu
 - Contact me: equity issues, welfare issues, rights issues

What's New?

- Report on the Status and Privileges of Fulltime Non-Tenure Track Faculty (November 2019)
 - Teaching Faculty
 - Multi-year contracts & promotion track
- Implementation Committee
- Representation on major governance bodies