

Topic	Interest
Types of feminists	Little	Moderate	A lot
Waves/history of women's movement	Little	Moderate	A lot
Research methods	Little	Moderate	A lot
Institutions (religion, politics, marriage, workplace, interpersonal interactions)	Little	Moderate	A lot
Media depictions of men and women	Little	Moderate	A lot
Differences (math performance, emotions)	Little	Moderate	A lot
Are sex and gender binary?	Little	Moderate	A lot
Theories of gender development	Little	Moderate	A lot
Puberty, gender intensification, menstruation	Little	Moderate	A lot
Sex research (Masters and Johnson, objective methods, Kinsey)	Little	Moderate	A lot
G-spot misconceptions, clitoris anatomy, orgasm gap	Little	Moderate	A lot
Differences between men and women (masturbation, pornography, # partners, virginity)	Little	Moderate	A lot
Sexual subjectivity/positivity	Little	Moderate	A lot
Sexual orientation (trends, how many people are LGBTQ)	Little	Moderate	A lot
Lesbian sexuality	Little	Moderate	A lot
Media depictions of lesbian sexuality	Little	Moderate	A lot
Theories of homosexuality	Little	Moderate	A lot
Sexual fluidity of women	Little	Moderate	A lot
Marriage (types of marriage, influence of power, relationships, single women)	Little	Moderate	A lot
Motherhood and Pregnancy	Little	Moderate	A lot
Sexual violence (Rape, causes of rape, toxic masculinity)	Little	Moderate	A lot

Name 1 thing you really want to talk about in this class.

---

---

---

How much previous knowledge/academic experience do you have with topics related to psychology of gender?

---

---