The merger of Mount Saint Agnes College with Loyola College in 1971 brought together the philosophies of Catherine MacAuley and Ignatius of Loyola. Catherine, founder of the Sisters of Mercy, directed her followers to be “the kindest people on earth, with the tenderest . . . compassion for the poor”; in keeping with the philosophy of Ignatius, founder of the Jesuits, Loyola directs its students to be “men and women for others.”

Envision how you will incorporate both of these ideals into your life as you study at Loyola University Maryland and as you embark on a career as a Loyola graduate. Be specific in your essay, using examples and details as you write. You may discuss experiences in your past that have contributed to your goals.
