Verizon continues to support customers impacted by COVID-19 in the following ways:

We launched a weekly streaming music and entertainment series to support small businesses, waived late fees and overage charges for residential and small business customers impacted by COVID-19, and waived activation fees on new wireless lines of service and upgrades.

Free learning tools and premium TV: Beginning April 1, Fios TV customers who don't currently subscribe to select premium channels will get access to 30 days of programming through their set top box at no additional cost, and with no extra sign-ups, including: SHOWTIME, Epix and Gaiam TV Fit & Yoga. In April, Verizon Wireless and Fios customers will be able to experience up to 60 days of free access to valued education resources, tools and games at no cost, including Quizlet, Bookful, Chegg and Epic. 15GB free high-speed data: Verizon is giving 15GB of additional high-speed data for wireless consumer and small business customers that will be automatically applied to consumer plans from March 25 through April 30, 2020. No customer action is necessary.

Free international calling: For consumer wireless and home voice customers to CDC select countries and unlimited domestic calling for wireless consumers on limited-minute plans

When a Verizon customer is experiencing hardships because of COVID-19: Verizon will waive late fees and overage charges for 60 days from March 16 to May 13 for customers and small businesses who let us know they are unable to pay as a result of economic hardship due to the COVID-19 pandemic, and we will not terminate service to those customers.
