

- 4. During your study abroad experience, what did you do to immerse yourself in your host country's culture? Please provide one or more examples. If you did not study abroad, please tell us about one or more experiences that may help you understand an international student's perspective as he/she is adjusting the new culture.

5. What was the greatest challenge you faced while studying abroad? And, how did you overcome it? If you did not study abroad, what challenges do you think that you might have integrating in a new country and a new culture? How do you think you would overcome these challenges?

6. What was the most distinctive cultural difference you encountered in your host country? If you have not been abroad or studied in a host country, please give us an example of a time that you encountered a distinct cultural differences. how did you feel? How did you handle the situation? What would you do differently if you could re-experience the encounter?

7. What unique aspect of your host country/culture did you become most involved in? How so? If you did not study abroad, please tell us what about working with international students interests you the most.

- 8. Serving every member of a diverse student body is an important consideration for each member of the Global Greyhounds team. How would you help students with different backgrounds transition to student life at Loyola? In addition, if applicable, please include any examples you have working with a diverse group.

9. Is there anything else you would like for us to know about you?