Meet the Board!
Colin Ward: Publicity and Promotion Coordinator

Q: How many years have you been on the board?
A: 3 Years

Q: Why did you join SuperFans?
A: I love the excitement of the fans after we score an incredible goal to put the team in the lead.

Q: What's your favorite SuperFans memory?
A: I have two favorite memories! Lexi Gray's buzzer beater against Lehigh to win a very important game for the women's basketball team and last season's men's lacrosse game against Yale in the NCAA playoffs. That game had one of the best crowds even though it was played on the road.

The men’s soccer team made their way down to then-second ranked Wake Forest on October 22nd and with 12 seconds left in the game, senior Josh Fawole scored the equalizer with a cross from junior Eddy Rodriguez. That goal was featured on ESPN Sports Center Top 10 plays declaring them as number 6.

During Homecoming this past Saturday, the men’s soccer team scored the most goals in a game since 1999 with an 8-1 win against Holy Cross. We also celebrated senior day by honoring Nico Brown, Matt Dabrowski, Josh Fawole, Morgan Lussi, Davey Mason, Brian Saramago and Barry Sharifi in a pregame ceremony.

The women’s soccer team took a tough loss on Homecoming Saturday to Colgate in double overtime. Freshman Paige Sim made a season-high of eight saves in goal, earning her the Patriot League Rookie of the Week. Seniors Lily Andres, Mary Theresa Corcoran, Beth Eversman, Maddie Hart, Hannah Hoefs, Casey McKenzie, and Jen Moutenot were each recognized in a pregame ceremony prior to their final regular-season home game at Ridley Athletic Complex.

The women’s volleyball team fell to Colgate on Friday, October 25, with Sophomore Katie Forsythe falling just one dig short of her third career 40-dig outing. Forsythe set a Patriot League record for digs in the team’s win against Holy Cross on Saturday, October 26.

Freshman Max Verheyen won three individual races and senior Emily Koegl set a Jacobs Pool record in the 100-yard butterfly, but the Loyola University Maryland swimming and diving teams each dropped decisions to host Lehigh University on Saturday afternoon. In the men’s competition, the Mountain Hawks pulled out a tight 147-146 victory over Loyola. The Lehigh women’s team topped the Greyhounds by a 185-113 scoreline. Koegl, Elizabeth Walsh, Devin Cronin and Megan Dickey added a second pool record for the Loyola women in the 400 medley relay, completing the race in a time of 3:50.93.

The men’s golf team came in second at Metropolitan Intercollegiate, with Freshman Turner Foster finishing third individually. Junior Brandon Berry averaged 72.58 strokes, tying for fourth individually. This is the third second-place match that the team has had.

Men’s and women’s rowing had their first regatta on October 26 at the Head of Schuylkill. The men’s novice group of Freshmen Aidan Malinowski, Frederich Lightner, Henri Barzun, Brian Skeels and coxswain Delaney Gibbons placed third out of 16 teams, and finished with a time of 16:05.536. The women’s freshman team of Emily Hunt, Kaitlyn Rubbo, Emma McCann, Molly Janoch and coxswain Rebecca Ingwersen came in fourth out of twenty-three competitors, completing the course in 17:36.007.
