Meet The Board!

Natalie Labib: Social Media Coordinator

Q: How many years have you been on the board?
A: 2 years

Q: Why did you join SuperFans?
A: I love sports, and I love designing giveaways.

Q: What’s your favorite SuperFans memory?
A: The Battle of Charles Street lacrosse game. It was so fun cheering on the Hounds with the SuperFans board!

Team Recaps

The men’s basketball team lost a close game to George Mason on November 19 with the score of 65-61. Junior Brent Holcombe had the first double-double of the season. The team flew out to Omaha, Nebraska as they participated in the Cayman Islands Classic’s Mainland Tournament. They beat IUPUI on November 25 in their first game and advanced to the tournament’s title game where they eventually lost to University of Nebraska Omaha. After Thanksgiving break, the Hounds bounced back with a win in Reitz Arena against Binghamton with a score of 65-77. On December 4, Andrew Kostecka scored 25 points to lead four Loyola players in double figures during an 84-76 victory at Delaware State.

Loyola freshman guard Cam Spencer was named the Patriot League Rookie of the Week on Monday, December 2, after averaging 13 points and 5 assists in three Greyhounds games last week. Cam currently leads the NCAA in assist: turnover ratio with 25 assists and 4 turnovers! Spencer is the second Loyola freshman to earn Patriot League Rookie of the Week honors this season after Golden Dike garnered the honor on November 18.

Women’s basketball senior Stephanie Karcz became Loyola’s 22nd women’s basketball player to score 1,000 points in her career during the women’s game vs. Florida Atlantic last week. The following day, against Wright State, Karcz broke another record when she became Loyola’s all-time leader in career steals with 348!

The Loyola men’s and women’s swimming and diving teams had a victorious home meet against Fairfield on November 16. The women won 182-113 with the men outscoring the Stags 198-91. Last weekend, the men’s team added another victory when they beat Bucknell for the first time in program history! The H2ounds return to the pool this weekend to host their annual H2ounds Invitational. Come out to the FAC on Friday, December 6 at 5 pm or Saturday, December 7 at 10 am!
