Game Recaps

Men's Basketball

Jan. 16: In the opening game of the season, Brandon Bradsher, a Loyola senior, made his first career start and had a team-high of 21 points. Despite the efforts of their second half push, the Greyhounds fell to the Lafayette Leopards by 2, with a final score of 77-75.

Jan. 17: The Greyhounds controlled the boards in their second match up against the Leopards, but like the previous night, the men's basketball team rallied in the second half, closing the double digit deficit, but ultimately fell to Lafayette with a final score of 72-70. Aldama scored a game high of 22 points.

Jan. 23: In another close game for the Greyhounds, sophomore, Santi Aldama, had a game high of 25 points and junior, Jaylin Andrews, had his second career double double, but American took the win home by 1 with a final score of 71-70.

Jan. 24: In their second match up of the weekend, the Loyola Greyhounds took the American Eagles into an exciting 3 overtimes. In the last second of the third overtime, the Eagles threw up a half court shot and scored for the win, with a final score of 81-79.

Women's Basketball

Jan. 2: In their season opener, the Greyhounds battled it out against Bucknell University, but the Bison came out on top with a final score of 72-44. Junior, Devyne Newman, scored 16 points in her debut with the Greyhounds while fellow junior, Taleah Dixon, added another 14 points in her first appearance after sitting out last season due to injury.

Jan. 3: With a great defensive first half, the Greyhounds held the Bison to 23.8 percent scoring and forced 8 turnovers. Sophomore, Emily McAteer, led the Greyhounds with 14 points and senior, Delaney Connolly, had a game-high 10 rebounds. However, Bucknell took the lead with a late surge for a final score of 59-44.

Jan. 23: In their first game in 20 days, Taleah Dixon (Junior) scored a team-high of 12 points while senior, Isabella Therien, got her first start since 2019, adding 5 points and 5 rebounds for the Greyhounds. Despite their best efforts, Loyola fell to American with a final score of 64-45.

Jan. 24: During their second match up against the American University Eagles, Senior, Delaney Connolly contributed a season-high 13 points for the Greyhounds. Loyola worked to close the lead, but fell short with a final score of 67-58.
On January 25th, 2014 the women's basketball team beat Colgate 64-54 on the road.
