Bad Night to be a Knight

On Friday night, the Loyola Men’s Lacrosse team took down Army West Point, 12-8 to clinch the regular season title for the Patriot League. With back-to-back goals within six seconds of one another to start the quarter off, the Hounds jumped to a 7-1 lead at the start of the second quarter.

Both the Men’s and Women’s teams will be hosting the Patriot League Tournament!!

The men will host April 27th -29th. The semifinals take place this Friday at 4:30pm, followed by the title game on Sunday at noon. The seeding for the tournament is: 1) Loyola, 2) Navy, 3) Bucknell, 4) Lehigh, 5) Colgate, 6) Boston University.

Women’s Lacrosse vs Colgate Recap

It was a great weekend for the Greyhounds as the Women’s Lacrosse team brought in another win against Colgate on Saturday, April 21st. Freshman Livy Rosenzweig scored nine goals and had eight assists, breaking the school record of seven assists. This record hasn’t been broken since 1986. In addition, we saw some great goals from junior Hannah Powers, as she scored her seventh hat trick of the season.

As for the fans, the playoffs are quickly approaching, and the Hounds are hosting the Patriot League tournament! Keep checking the SuperFans social media accounts for updates on the next games!

This weekend: Be sure to make it out to Ridley for the Women’s Lacrosse senior day. The tailgate will begin at 12pm and we will be giving away long-sleeve t-shirts! The game starts at 1pm vs Holy Cross.
Congratulations to the 2018-2019 SuperFans Executive Board President and Vice President!!

We are proud to announce the new President and Vice President of the SuperFans Executive Board for the 2018-2019 school year, Chelsea Morrison ‘19 and Matthew Cuttle ‘20. We are excited to see both of them in action next year as we know they will have a positive impact on the board and our Greyhound community.

Meet a Board Member

Campus Outreach & Fan Traditions Coordinator:

Alex Favreau ‘18

q: How have you seen SuperFans change over the past 4 years of you being on the executive board?
A: I’ve seen SuperFans change by different people stepping up and different people emerging as leaders. I think SuperFans has really progressed, especially this year, with overall community and campus outreach.

q: What are you going to miss most about SuperFans?
A: I’m going to miss each sport but for some reason, I think I will miss highs and lows during meetings from Ryan Fucci the most.

q: Who is your favorite music artist?
A: Favorite musical artist has to be Illenium. He makes electronic music that is both powerful and emotional and it’s really awesome to vibe to while I’m studying, driving or working out.
On April 14th, Loyola Men’s and Women’s Rowing teams participated in the Kerr Cup in Schuylkill River, Philadelphia. Some other Patriot League teams that participated in this race were Bucknell, Colgate, Lafayette, West Point and Lehigh.

The rowing teams placed in 11 different races in total. Six men's races and five women's races. The men took first in the Men's Varsity 2-Heat 2 and placed second in the Men's Varsity 4+ B Heat 2 and Men's Varsity 4+ Heat 1. In the Men's Varsity 2 finals, sophomore star, Sean Mollahan took third in the heat. In the Men's Varsity 4+ finals, senior Ryan Brown took fourth. The women took third in the Women's Varsity 8+ petite finals.

---

As the semester approaches its’ conclusion, the Loyola tennis teams have begun to wrap up action.

The Women’s team was defeated by Boston University in the Patriot League tournament to finish their season. The Hounds finished the year with a 14-4 record with their most recent victories against Lafayette, Bucknell and Coppin State.

The Men’s team currently has a 9-4 record heading in to the home stretch of their year, with their most recent victories against Lafayette and Coppin State. They finish up their regular season today, against Villanova, and will head into the Patriot League tournament this weekend.