Team Recaps

The Men’s Lacrosse team kicked off their 2019 season against Virginia at home this Saturday. Senior Pat Spencer started his Tewaaraton campaign strong with 5 goals and 2 assists, while senior Jacob Stover had 18 saves in goal.

The Hounds take on Johns Hopkins in the Battle of Charles Street on Saturday at Homewood Field.

Women’s Basketball bounced back from a tough loss against Lehigh to beat Army West Point last Saturday with a score of 70-51. Hannah Niles led the Hounds in scoring with 17 points in an impressive win. The Greyhounds had their Play4Kay game on Saturday, and although they lost, junior Stephanie Karcz had an impressive double-double. Catch the Hounds back in action on Wednesday against American at 6pm in Reitz Arena.

Men’s Basketball has hit a 3 game skid with losses against American, Navy, and Bucknell. Despite the unfortunate outcomes, junior Andrew Kostecha has averaged 26 points in that span while scoring his 1,000th career point, and junior Kavaughn Scott notched his second double-double of the season against American. Come to Reitz on Sunday to watch them take on Lafayette.

The Swimming and Diving team had a meet against Mount St. Mary’s last weekend, with dominating performances from freshmen Jimmy Hayburn and Alejandro Basalo. The team also honored seniors John Callaghan, Ross Caudie, Gabrielle Clarkson, Christina Guertin, Grace Huckenpoehler, Amy Martinelli, Christina Napoli, Aly Pacitti, Brooke Sharkey, and Lindsey Straszewski. Thank you Seniors!
