MASTER OF EDUCATION IN KODÁLY MUSIC EDUCATION

The Master of Education in Kodály Music Education includes 36 credits at four levels. Students complete their levels during four consecutive summer sessions—three-week sessions for Levels I-III and a four-week session for Level IV. Students receive their Kodály certification following successful completion of Level III and the retrieval system project, and their master’s degree following successful completion of Level IV.

Each of the first three levels includes four courses: Solfa (Sight Singing and Ear Training), Kodály Pedagogy, Kodály Materials (Songs and Games, Folk Instruments, Retrieval System), and Choral Studies (Conducting and Choir). A Secondary Choral Pedagogy track is available for choral directors. Level IV consists of the following three core education courses: Foundations of Educational Research, Teaching Students with Special Needs, and Advanced Studies in Music Education. These courses are designed to broaden the student’s knowledge of research and trends in the field of education, and are specifically geared toward practical applications in the music class. All applicants complete a Solfa Skills Assessment test to gauge their sight singing and ear training skills.

LEVEL I
KM 952 - Kodály Pedagogy I
KM 953 - Kodály Materials I
KM 956 - Choral Studies I
KM 960 - Solfa I

LEVEL II
KM 952 - Kodály Pedagogy II
KM 953 - Kodály Materials II
KM 954 - Choral Pedagogy II
KM 956 - Choral Studies II
KM 960 - Solfa II

LEVEL III
KM 992 - Choral Studies III
KM 993 - Kodály Materials III
KM 994 - Kodály Pedagogy III
KM 995 - Solfa III
KM 996 - Secondary Choral Pedagogy III

LEVEL IV
ED 600 - Foundations of Educational Research
ED 900 - Advanced Studies in Music Education
SE 769 - Teaching Students with Special Needs

FOR MORE INFORMATION
WEB: loyola.edu/kodaly
TWITTER: @LoyolaEducation
PHONE: 410-617-5020
EMAIL: graduate@loyola.edu
The Master of Education in Kodály Music Education includes 36 credits at four levels. Students complete their levels during four consecutive summer sessions—three-week sessions for Levels I-III and a four-week session for Level IV. Students receive their Kodály certification following successful completion of Level III and the retrieval system project, and their master’s degree following successful completion of Level IV.

Each of the first three levels includes four courses: Solfa (Sight Singing and Ear Training), Kodály Pedagogy, Kodály Materials (Songs and Games, Folk Instruments, Retrieval System), and Choral Studies (Conducting and Choir). A Secondary Choral Pedagogy track is available for choral directors. Level IV consists of the following three core education courses: Foundations of Educational Research, Teaching Students with Special Needs, and Advanced Studies in Music Education. These courses are designed to broaden the student’s knowledge of research and trends in the field of education, and are specifically geared toward practical applications in the music class. All applicants complete a Solfa Skills Assessment test to gauge their sight singing and ear training skills.

LEVEL I
- KM 952 - Kodály Pedagogy I
- KM 953 - Kodály Materials I
- KM 856 - Choral Studies I
- KM 860 - Solfa I

LEVEL II
- KM 992 - Choral Studies II
- KM 993 - Kodály Materials II
- KM 994 - Kodály Pedagogy II
- KM 995 - Solfa II

LEVEL III
- KM 992 - Choral Studies III
- KM 993 - Kodály Materials III
- KM 994 - Kodály Pedagogy III
- KM 995 - Solfa III
- KM 996 - Secondary Choral Pedagogy III

LEVEL IV
- ED 600 - Foundations of Educational Research
- ED 900 - Advanced Studies in Music Education
- SE 769 - Teaching Students with Special Needs

FOR MORE INFORMATION
WEB: loyola.edu/kodaly
TWITTER: @LoyolaEducation
PHONE: 410-617-5020
EMAIL: graduate@loyola.edu

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY MARYLAND
SCHOOL OF EDUCATION
GRADUATE PROGRAM IN KODÁLY MUSIC EDUCATION
The American Kodály Institute (AKI) offers a four-summer program leading to Kodály certification and a Master of Education in Kodály Music Education. AKI is unique in its comprehensive approach, which develops participants’ skills—both as musicians and as music educators—to remarkable levels, and incorporates practical applications of emerging research on how children learn music. The institute is nationally endorsed by the Organization of American Kodály Educators. Faculty members are nationally and internationally known Kodály specialists with extensive experience in teaching children and training music educators.

TO APPLY

- Bachelor’s Degree in Music or Music Education, Undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or Higher
- Application Form
- Application Fee
- Official Transcripts
- Résumé or Vitae
- Personal Essay
- 2 Letters of Recommendation
- Completion of the Solfa Skills Assessment Test
- International Student Supplemental

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

- 36 CREDITS
- 12 COURSES
- 4 YEARS
- COMPLETE FOUR 3-WEEK SUMMER SEMESTERS

Kodály Music Education students experience a unique and fulfilling music education program that is designed for the working educator.

WHAT YOU’LL EXPERIENCE

- Distinguished Faculty: Loyola’s Kodály Music Education faculty are internationally known.
- Individualized Attention: Cohorts are small so that our professors may offer individualized instruction.

- Cohort-Based Program: A familial and collegial lock-step format.
- Music Education Workshops: Workshops are free and open to all.
- Summer Terms: Classes are conveniently offered in the summer.
- Outstanding Music Facilities: Loyola offers excellent facilities and a beautiful campus.

MUSIC EDUCATION WORKSHOPS

- SUMMER TERMS
- OUTSTANDING MUSIC FACILITIES

- SUMMER
- SUMMER
- SUMMER
- SUMMER

HOW YOU’LL EMERGE

- As a certified Kodály music educator with a Master’s of Education degree and a comprehensive music education background.
- As an advocate for universal music education that includes singing, music literacy, musical materials of the highest caliber, preservation of our musical heritage, and joyful music making.
- As a part of a highly active and influential school alumni network 20,000 strong, with the opportunity to build a diverse professional network.

CONTACT US

Loyola University Maryland
4501 N. Charles St.
Baltimore, MD 21210
410-617-5020
loyola.edu/kodaly
graduate@loyola.edu
The American Kodály Institute (AKI) offers a four-summer program leading to Kodály certification and a Master of Education in Kodály Music Education. AKI is unique in its comprehensive approach, which develops participants’ skills—both as musicians and as music educators—to remarkable levels, and incorporates practical applications of emerging research on how children learn music. The institute is nationally endorsed by the Organization of American Kodály Educators. Faculty members are nationally and internationally known Kodály specialists with extensive experience in teaching children and training music educators.

TO APPLY

REQUIRED
- Bachelor’s Degree in Music or Music Education. Undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or Higher
- Application Form
- Application Fee
- Official Transcripts
- Résumé or Vitae
- Personal Essay
- 2 Letters of Recommendation
- Completion of the Solfa Skills Assessment Test
- International Student Supplemental

WHAT YOU’LL EXPERIENCE

Kodály Music Education students experience a unique and fulfilling music education program that is designed for the working educator.

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY
Loyola’s Kodály Music Education faculty are internationally known.

EXCEEDS STANDARDS
Exceeds the Organization of American Kodály Educator’s teacher-training guidelines.

INDIVIDUALIZED ATTENTION
Cohorts are small so that our professors may offer individualized instruction.

COHORT-BASED PROGRAM
A familial and collegial lock-step format.

MUSIC EDUCATION WORKSHOPS
Workshops are free and open to all.

SUMMER TERMS
Classes are conveniently offered in the summer.

OUTSTANDING MUSIC FACILITIES
Loyola offers excellent facilities and a beautiful campus.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

36 CREDITS
12 COURSES
4 YEARS
COMPLETE FOUR 3-WEEK SUMMER SEMESTERS

CONTACT US

Loyola University Maryland
4501 N. Charles St.
Baltimore, Md. 21210
410-617-5020
loyola.edu/kodaly
graduate@loyola.edu

HOW YOU’LL EMERGE

As a certified Kodály music educator with a Master’s of Education degree and a comprehensive music education background.

As an advocate for universal music education that includes singing, music literacy, musical materials of the highest caliber, preservation of our musical heritage, and joyful music making.

As a part of a highly active and influential school alumni network 20,000 strong, with the opportunity to build a diverse professional network.
The American Kodály Institute (AKI) offers a four-summer program leading to Kodály certification and a Master of Education in Kodály Music Education. AKI is unique in its comprehensive approach, which develops participants’ skills—both as musicians and as music educators—to remarkable levels, and incorporates practical applications of emerging research on how children learn music.

The institute is nationally endorsed by the Organization of American Kodály Educators. Faculty members are nationally and internationally known Kodály specialists with extensive experience in teaching children and training music educators.

TO APPLY

REQUIRED
- Bachelor’s Degree in Music or Music Education, Undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or Higher
- Application Form
- Application Fee
- Official Transcripts
- Résumé or Vitae
- Personal Essay
- 2 Letters of Recommendation
- Completion of the Solfa Skills Assessment Test
- International Student Supplemental

Kodály Music Education students experience a unique and fulfilling music education program that is designed for the working educator.

WHAT YOU’LL EXPERIENCE

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY
Loyola’s Kodály Music Education faculty are internationally known.

EXCEEDS STANDARDS
Exceeds the Organization of American Kodály Educator’s teacher-training guidelines.

INDIVIDUALIZED ATTENTION
Cohorts are small so that our professors may offer individualized instruction.

COHORT-BASED PROGRAM
A familial and collegial lock-step format.

MUSIC EDUCATION WORKSHOPS
Workshops are free and open to all.

SUMMER TERMS
Classes are conveniently offered in the summer.

OUTSTANDING MUSIC FACILITIES
Loyola offers excellent facilities and a beautiful campus.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS
36 CREDITS
12 COURSES
4 YEARS
COMPLETE FOUR 3-WEEK SUMMER SEMESTERS

HOW YOU’LL EMERGE

As a certified Kodály music educator with a Master’s of Education degree and a comprehensive music education background.

As an advocate for universal music education that includes singing, music literacy, musical materials of the highest caliber, preservation of our musical heritage, and joyful music making.

As a part of a highly active and influential school alumni network 20,000 strong, with the opportunity to build a diverse professional network.

CONTACT US

Loyola University Maryland
4501 N. Charles St.
Baltimore, MD 21210
410-617-5020
loyola.edu/kodaly
graduate@loyola.edu
The Master of Education in Kodály Music Education includes 36 credits at four levels. Students complete their levels during four consecutive summer sessions—three-week sessions for Levels I-III and a four-week session for Level IV. Students receive their Kodály certification following successful completion of Level III and the retrieval system project, and their master’s degree following successful completion of Level IV.

Each of the first three levels includes four courses: Solfa (Sight Singing and Ear Training), Kodály Pedagogy, Kodály Materials (Songs and Games, Folk Instruments, Retrieval System), and Choral Studies (Conducting and Choir). A Secondary Choral Pedagogy track is available for choral directors. Level IV consists of the following three core education courses: Foundations of Educational Research, Teaching Students with Special Needs, and Advanced Studies in Music Education. These courses are designed to broaden the student’s knowledge of research and trends in the field of education, and are specifically geared toward practical applications in the music class. All applicants complete a Solfa Skills Assessment test to gauge their sight singing and ear training skills.

LEVEL I
KM 952 - Kodály Pedagogy I
KM 953 - Kodály Materials I
KM 956 - Choral Studies I
KM 960 - Solfa I

LEVEL II
KM 952 - Kodály Pedagogy II
KM 953 - Kodály Materials II
KM 954 - Choral Pedagogy II
KM 956 - Choral Studies II
KM 960 - Solfa II

LEVEL III
KM 992 - Choral Studies III
KM 993 - Kodály Materials III
KM 994 - Kodály Pedagogy III
KM 995 - Solfa III
KM 996 - Secondary Choral Pedagogy III

LEVEL IV
ED 600 - Foundations of Educational Research
ED 900 - Advanced Studies in Music Education
SE 769 - Teaching Students with Special Needs

FOR MORE INFORMATION
WEB: loyola.edu/kodaly
TWITTER: @LoyolaEducation
PHONE: 410-617-5020
EMAIL: graduate@loyola.edu