For students who have the interest, talent, and ambition, Loyola faculty and The Career Center work together to make sure Wall Street is a real, achievable option.

FIRST YEAR

FALL
- EC 102 Microeconomic Principles
- MA 101 Calculus I
- CR 105

SPRING
- AC 201 Financial Accounting
- EC 103 Microeconomic Principles

FRESHMAN SUMMER INTERNSHIP
Prove you’re a hard worker with a strong work ethic. You don’t have to take a job in finance. Find an opportunity to show initiative and dependability as a professional.

Sophomore Year

Fall
- FI 320 Financial Management
- EC 200 Business Statistics
- Apply to Study Abroad

Spring
- FI 330 Junior Financial Analyst

Sophomore Summer Internship
Working in a financial institution this summer is great, but it’s most important to be passionate and continue developing the skills and traits that banks are looking for.

Junior Year

Fall
- FI 380 Fixed Income Securities: Valuation and Markets
- FI 381 Equity Securities: Valuation and Markets
- Apply for Junior Summer Internship

Spring
- IB 282 International Business
- OM 330 Operations Management

Junior Summer Internship
You have long, hard weeks ahead of you. Firms fill most of their full-time roles with successful summer interns. Stand out through your work ethic and teamwork.

Senior Year

Fall
- FI 440 Financial Analysis and Valuation
- FI 441 Student Managed SAP Fund

Spring
- FI 440 Advanced Financial Management
- MK 402 Business Policy

Charles traits
- Working Productive
- Passionate
- Tourable
- Dependable

Other interests
- Geography
- Literature
- Mathematics
- Philosophy
- Data Visualization
- Global Events

Co-curriculars
- Sports
- Student Clubs
- Service
- Research Projects
- Foreign Language
- Mentoring/Tutoring

Skills
- Data Visualization
- Philosophy
- Mathematics
- Foreign Language
- Co-curriculars

Character traits
- Trustworthy
- Diligent
- Personable
- Passionate
- Proactive
- Hardworking

“As a new hire, you need to show you are hungry and driven. By the first one in every morning and the last one out every night. Make every minute on the job count and prove you’re in it for the task at hand.”

—JAMES JABIN, “PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATE, MORGAN STANLEY

---

“When I chose my finance major, my parents had peace of mind knowing that I was taking the necessary steps towards a successful future in a field that I love very passionately.”

—MARY SOMOPHINE, FINANCE MAJOR
Choosing Your Office

No firm on Wall Street is all rainmakers. So where do you fit in? Here are some examples of the different positions our Path to Wall Street will make available to you.

Visit Loyola’s Career Center to discuss your career-related values. Take an interest assessment and reflect on your strengths early on to evaluate your match for a career on Wall Street.

Attend career fairs and on-campus info sessions, maintain and keep building your network of alumni on Wall Street, and apply to a large number of firms.

The Final Interview for Competitive Internships

SUPERDAY

EARLY INTERVIEW ROUNDS

The First Interview for Competitive Internships

ARRIVAL

- Firm flies you out for interview.
- Attend a small evening event. These can be part of the interview process, so behave professionally.
- Meet other interviewees. Don’t view them as competition; be sure to network.
- Go to office and obtain your schedule.
- Interview with various hiring groups throughout the day.

The middle office ensures the investment bank avoids engaging in certain activities that could be detrimental to the bank’s overall health, such as taking on too much risk in underwriting certain securities.

MIDDLE OFFICE DIVISIONS
- Risk Management
- Financial Control
- Corporate Treasury
- Corporate Strategy
- Compliance

The middle office guarantees distribution so know what your major is in finance and have a keen interest in Wall Street. This is a great time to prepare your resume because it is a great opportunity to meet the professionals in the field.

You will have one or two rounds of interviews to get to Superday. Here is what you should prepare for:

- Your first interview will probably be on the phone, so practice with The Career Center.
- They will ask technical and behavioral questions to ensure you have the skills to do the job.
- Be ready to clearly articulate why you want this specific internship at this particular firm.

Be introduced to alumni on Wall Street to learn about their experiences, attend info sessions and career fairs, and get connected to finance-related clubs.

Loyola Ready

Visit Loyola’s Career Center to discuss your career-related values. Take a career interest assessment and reflect on your strengths early on to evaluate your match for a career on Wall Street.

Be matched to the expectations of Wall Street firms, attend an Acing the Interview prep course and engage in practice interviews, and make a plan to research and pursue firms of interest.