Training Opportunities

- ⇒ FEMA courses
- ⇒ Departmental Safety Trainings
- ⇒ Lab Safety Courses

Access trainings at:
loyola.trainingtoday.com
training.fema.gov

Meet the Team

Director: Tom Hettleman

Chief Fire Safety Officer: Eric Bell

Environmental Compliance Coordinator: Alexandra Mancano

For additional information, please visit: www.loyola.edu/department/environmental-health-safety

Call us at 410-617-1120

Email us at ehs@loyola.edu

ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

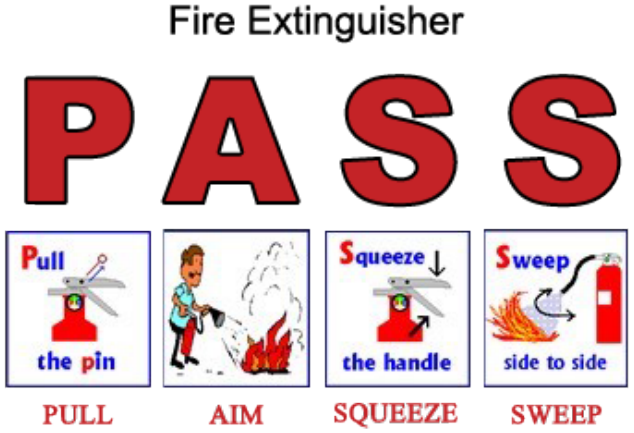
LOYOLA
UNIVERSITY MARYLAND

Environmental Safety and Health

- ⇒ Implement methods to protect human health, safety and the environment
- ⇒ Provide training and education in various aspects across campus
- ⇒ Safety inspections and evaluations of potential hazards
- ⇒ Accident investigation
- ⇒ Development of safety protocols, procedures and policies
- ⇒ HAZMAT emergency response
- ⇒ Environmental program development
- ⇒ Infectious, chemical and radiological waste disposal
- ⇒ Regulatory compliance inspections
- ⇒ Indoor air and water quality testing and inspection

Fire Safety

- ⇒ Conduct fire drills
- ⇒ Provide fire safety education
- ⇒ Test and inspect fire alarm systems
- ⇒ Fire investigations
- ⇒ Life safety inspections
- ⇒ Partner with local fire departments and public safety to ensure quick response



Environmental Compliance

- ⇒ Provide a variety of programs that contribute to the University commitment to environmental stewardship.
- ⇒ Create and carry out campus wide programs to insure that the with regulations set forth by the Environmental Protection Agency and the Maryland Department of the Environment.
- ⇒ Manage hazardous waste collection and disposal
- ⇒ Recycle electronic waste and batteries
- ⇒ Regulatory reporting
- ⇒ Environmental testing and monitoring
- ⇒ Perform laboratory inspections
- ⇒ Assist other departments with regulatory compliance
- ⇒ Emergency response to chemical spills
- ⇒ Staying current with new laws and regulations