Class Agreements on Classroom Management and Climate

Language when we have disagreements:
- Use encouraging language
- Don't shut down
- Keep confidentiality
- Help each other
- Body language is important: rolling eyes, for example, might be discouraging
- Have an open mind and be respectful
- Keep our stuff confidential, but share the knowledge from class
- Try not to dominate the class/space
- Be mindful that people have different processing time
- As questions to foster collaborative environment
- It's OK not to know how you feel about something
- Be open to feedback
- Be mindful of intent vs impact
