

Topic	Coverage
Types of feminists	Too little	Just right	Too much
Waves of feminism	Too little	Just right	Too much
Research methods	Too little	Just right	Too much
Institutions (religion, politics, marriage, workplace, interpersonal interactions)	Too little	Just right	Too much
Media depictions of men and women	Too little	Just right	Too much
Differences (math performance, emotions, Hyde meta-analysis)	Too little	Just right	Too much
Intersex individuals (9 variables of sex and gender, Caster Semenya, Reimer twins)	Too little	Just right	Too much
Theories of gender development (evolutionary, social structural, social learning)	Too little	Just right	Too much
Puberty, gender intensification, menstruation	Too little	Just right	Too much
Sex research (Masters and Johnson, objective methods, Kinsey)	Too little	Just right	Too much
G-spot misconceptions, clitoris anatomy, orgasm gap	Too little	Just right	Too much
Differences between men and women (masturbation, pornography, # partners, virginity)	Too little	Just right	Too much
Sexual subjectivity	Too little	Just right	Too much
Sexual orientation (trends, how many people are gay, APA, etc.)	Too little	Just right	Too much
Lesbian sexuality (what do we consider sex?)	Too little	Just right	Too much
Media depictions of lesbian sexuality (androcentric view)	Too little	Just right	Too much
Theories of homosexuality	Too little	Just right	Too much
Sexual fluidity of women (lesbian psychological adjustment, relationships)	Too little	Just right	Too much
Marriage (types of marriage, influence of power, relationships, single women)	Too little	Just right	Too much
Motherhood and Pregnancy	Too little	Just right	Too much
Sexual violence (Rape, causes of rape, toxic masculinity)	Too little	Just right	Too much

Name 1 thing you would have liked to talk about that we did not talk about in class:
