

The instructor created a supportive environment for all students, including students from underrepresented groups (e.g., race/ethnicity, disability, age, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, religion).

The instructor showed openness, receptivity and respect for culturally different students

The instructor encouraged students to express different views and perspectives

The instructor included course content related to diversity when appropriate

The instructor demonstrated an awareness of and responsiveness to diverse perspectives