

APPLY FOR THE 2026-2027 COMMUNITY OF INQUIRY (COI) COHORT

Join a year-long, community-engaged research experience for undergraduate and graduate students. Work alongside faculty and community partners to drive equity, collaboration, and real-world impact.

Upcoming Projects: Walter P. Carter School

Recruiting 5–8 new members for:

- Baltimore Resources Heat Map: Create digital resource maps for local families.
- Math Intervention Group: Enhance student learning through innovative tutoring models.
- Restorative Justice & School Climate: Research practices that strengthen school culture.

Why Join?

- Gain Experience: Hands-on training in research and inquiry methods.
- Collaborate: Work with faculty mentors and student peers.
- Present: Showcase your work at CRE and Loyola Research Symposiums.
- Incentives: Earn an honorarium + eligibility for Student Worker or GA research roles.

Application Deadline:
April 15

Who Should Apply?

Open to all majors interested in education, equity, or community impact. No prior research experience required.

LOYOLA
UNIVERSITY MARYLAND

“COI WAS A GREAT WAY TO INTRODUCE ME TO
COMMUNITY-BASED RESEARCH. THERE WAS SO MUCH TO LEARN THAT I HAD NO IDEA EXISTED SO CLOSE TO LOYOLA.”

- COI STUDENT FROM 2025-2026 COHORT